This course also meets CME / CEU requirements for ARDMS. Note: While offering the CME credit hours noted above, activities are not intended to provide extensive training or certification for exam performance or interpretation.

NEEDS STATEMENT:

The planning committee has determined a need for the following educational activity based on request from the medical community, expanded utilization of ultrasound, and lab accreditation requirements and scope of practice requirements for sonographers and technologists.

Course Objectives

1. Increase the participants' knowledge to better perform and/or interpret cardiac ultrasound examinations.
2. Apply knowledge of the cardiac anatomy and corresponding cardiac physiology of the systemic & pulmonary circulation to perform routine scan protocols for adult echocardiography.
3. Differentiate normal and abnormal imaging characteristics of the adult cardiac ultrasound examination.
4. Cite commonly seen valvular pathology based upon their characteristic appearance and Doppler signature and/or quantitative diagnostic criteria.
5. Recognize cardiac pathology commonly diagnosed by echocardiography such as pericardial disease, Cardiomyopathies, CAD (ischemic disease), pulmonary hypertension and congenital heart disease.
6. Apply quality assurance and the relationship of specificity, sensitivity and overall accuracy of cardiac ultrasound examination test validation.
7. Define areas of weakness that require additional self-study to successfully pass your cardiac technology ultrasound board examination. (RDMS or RCS)

While offering CME credits this activity is not intended to provide extensive training or certification for performing or interpreting echocardiography. We recommend working under supervised conditions until an acceptable level of proficiency has been achieved.
